

Start of Block: Section 2 – Potential donor questionnaire

Imagine that you are a potential donor. This means that you are eligible to donate your organs, that will be used to help others through transplantation when your death occurs in specific circumstances. You will now be presented several aspects related to organ donation, and asked how much you trust different agents involved in the process. Use the slider to respond how much you trust or distrust each agent to commit to a specific task.

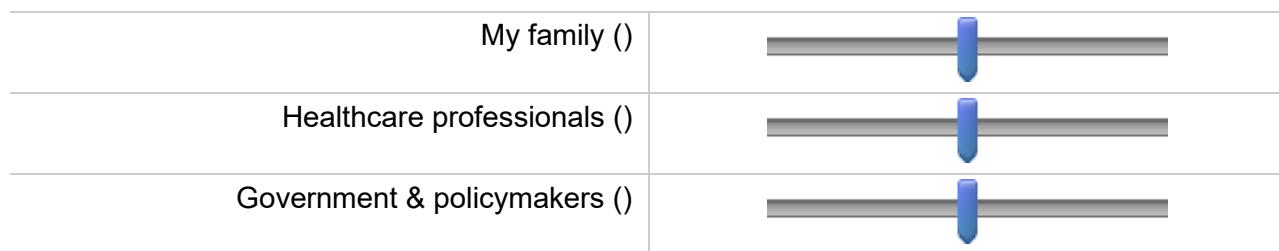

- I understand the instructions
-

If I were a potential donor, I would trust that my decisions will be respected by:

Not trust at all Somewhat not trust Somewhat trust Completely trust

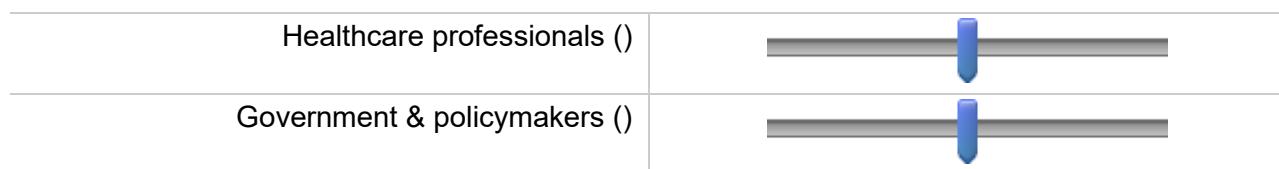

0 10 20 30 40 50 60 70 80 90 100

If I were a potential donor, I would trust that if can't express my wishes, my next of kin's or family's wishes will be respected by:

Not trust at all Somewhat not trust Somewhat trust Completely trust

0 10 20 30 40 50 60 70 80 90 100

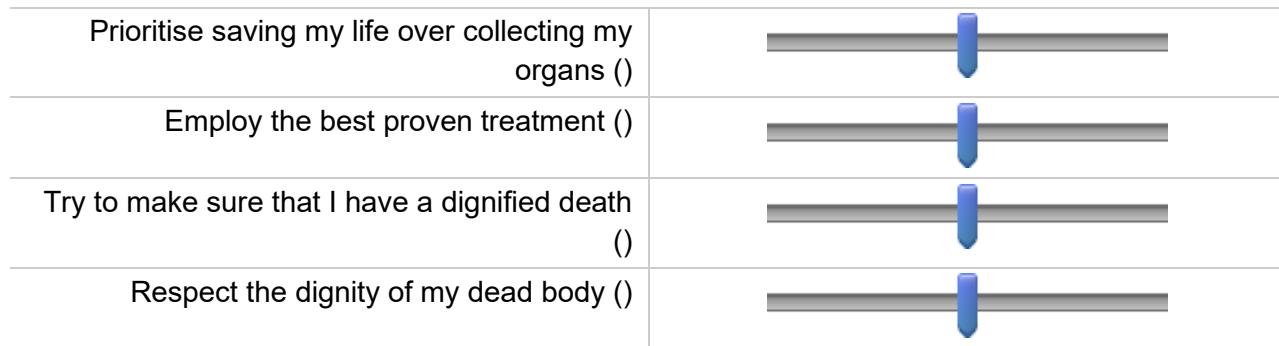

If I were a potential donor, I would trust that healthcare professionals will...

Not trust at all Somewhat not trust Somewhat trust Completely trust

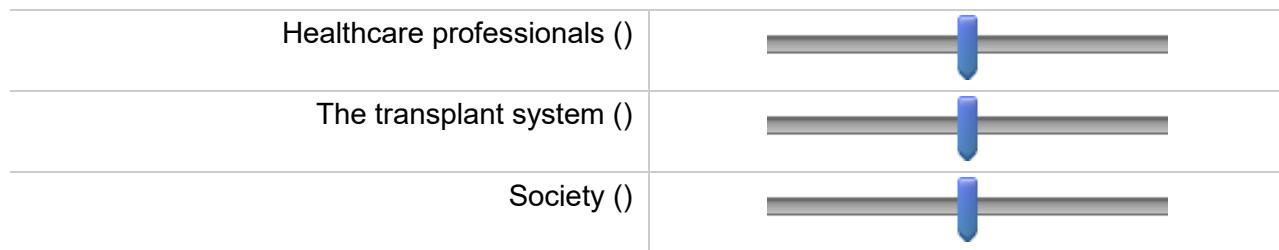

0 10 20 30 40 50 60 70 80 90 100

If I were a potential donor, I would trust that the following agents will try to make sure that my organs will be used appropriately to help others:

Not trust at all Somewhat not trust Somewhat trust Completely trust

0 10 20 30 40 50 60 70 80 90 100

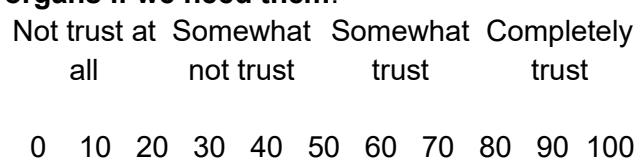

If I were a potential donor, I would trust that the following agents will try to make sure that my organs will be fairly distributed:

If I were a potential donor, I would trust that the following agents will try to make sure that my organs are used to save and improve lives:

If I were a potential donor, I would trust that the following agents will try to make sure that that my loved ones or myself will have available organs if we need them:

Healthcare professionals ()
The transplant system ()
Society ()

Is there anything else you would like to add to your answers in this block?

End of Block: potential donor
